INTERLET'S TENANT GUIDE

Everybody who wishes to rent a home in London should first be aware of the process involved.

The Government "How to rent" Guide provides a comprehensive guideline and useful checklists on How to Rent in London. The checklist (available here) is applicable to all who wish to rent a flat, house or even a shared property.

Interlet is a member of the Property Ombudsman, the UK Association of Letting Agents, and operate Client Money Protection Scheme giving a peace of mind to all potential tenants. We are also members of the government approved My Deposits Protection Scheme - providing all tenants complete protection of their deposits, preventing any stress for both landlords and tenants.

Interlet is also regulated by The Association of Residential Letting Agent (ARLA), UK'S foremost professional body for letting agents. We regularly keep up to date with the changing regulations and comply with professional standards of the nationally recognised professional body for letting agents.
